

Sam and Cam's Jam
Chou Chinith
Chou Chinith

Book 11 Level 3 - Growing Reader

Focus sounds: am sound

Target words: Sam, Cam, Sham, jam, ram

High-frequency words: too, what, where

*includes high-frequency words from previous levels

Vocabulary and challenge words: make, oh, day

Sam and Cam wish to make a pot of jam.

They dash to the shop with Mom.

What a rich and thick jam!

Oh no! Where did it go?

It was Sham.

He ran with the jam.

Thud!

They get the jam back from Sham.

Cam and Sam sit with the jam.

They pop the lid and ...

“Can we have a bit of jam?”

It is a man with a pet ram.

“Yes, you can!” nod Cam and Sam.

But Sham is sad.

Sham can have jam too.

“Sam and Cam, did you whip up a jam?”

“Yes, we have a lot of jam.”

What a fun day for Cam and Sam!

Let's explore the world!

The story is set in a charming town in Cambodia with colorful houses and a bustling marketplace where Sam and Cam plan to make a mango jam. Fruits like dragon fruit, mango and pineapple are abundant and delicious in Cambodia and used for making traditional jams and desserts. The joy of creating treats and sharing them with friends is an important part of Cambodian culture and traditions.

Brought to you by

Let's Read is a program of The Asia Foundation that supports early reading skills and habits to develop our next generation of critical thinkers and creative innovators in Asia and the Pacific.

To read more books like this and get further information,
visit: letsreadasia.org

Original Story

Sam and Cam's Jam. Author: Chou Chinith. Illustrator: Chou Chinith. Contributor: Evi Shelvia.

Published by The Asia Foundation - Let's Read, © The Asia Foundation - Let's Read.

Translations: © The Asia Foundation, 2024.